PUTNAM'S MONTHLY
A Magazine of Literature, Science & Art
AN ENTIRELY ORIGINAL AMERICAN WORK.

WITH the January number commences the seventh Volume of PUTNAM'S MONTHLY The constantly increasing circulation of the Magazine and the hearty sympathy with which the efforts of the Publishers have been received by the public, stimulate them to unwearied efforts to continue to deserve the success which they have achieved It is the aim of the Magazine to furnish the greatest variety of popular literary entertainment to criticise politics and society, from the most manly and generous point of view to tell the truth about books and men so far as they are properly subjects of public notice, to present the most spirited and accurate sketches of travel and personal adventure to discuss science in all its popular bearings and in general to make its the vehicle of the best observations upon all contemporary and national interests This will always be done by the best talent in the country and honestly but it cannot always be done without offence PUTNAM'S MONTHLY is neither a story book nor a partisan Journal It has opinions and principles It seeks to amuse and instruct, but it hopes also to be felt as the friend of good morals, sound learning and the most liberal and earnest discussion

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS

PUTNAM'S MONTHLY—Two numbers of this leading American Magazine have reached us at the same time, and brought upon us an embarras de richesse The articles number some eighteen in each, and there is not one that we should be inclined to pass over Indeed, "Putnam" has a peculiar attraction for us and we see in it a reflection of the mind manners and intelligence of our transatlantic cousins It carries us into a new country and makes us acquainted with all its characteristics in an easy unaffected manner Politics are not neglected but we do not detect faction or even party and we read under a persuasion that we are gathering the impartial opinion of the best minds in the United States—London (Eng) Weekly Times

TERMS—$3 a year, or 25c a number Subscribers remitting $3 promptly in advance to the Publishers, will receive the work for one year, post paid, in any part of the United States, within 3000 miles

Clubs of two persons $5 a year or five persons $10—Postmasters and Clergymen supplied at $2 Household Words and Putnam's Monthly $5 Household Words or Putnam's Monthly with the Schoolfellow to one address $3 50 or all three of the Magazines $5 50

IMPORTANT TO EVERYBODY.
FOR the last three years I have been engaged in a business known only to myself and comparatively a few others, whom I have instructed for the sum of $200 each which has averaged me at the rate of from $3,000 to $5 000 per annum, and having made arrangements to go to Europe next Spring to engage in the same business, I am desirous of giving full instructions in the Art to every person who will remit me the sum of ONE DOLLAR I am induced from the success I have been favored with and the many happy acknowledgments I have received from those I have instructed in the Art, and who are now making from $10 to $15 per day to give every person a chance to come into possession of this valuable means of making a small fortune. There is no HUMBUG about the business herein alluded to References of the best class can be given as regards its character and I can also refer to persons in Philadelphia as well as in this city, who have written to me in the business and who now testify that they are making from $8 to $15 per day at the same It is a business in which either ladies or gentlemen can engage and with perfect ease make a very handsome income Several ladies in various parts of Pennsylvania and Maryland whom I have instructed in the Art are now clearing from $3 to $6 per day It is a Genteel Business and but a few shillings are required to start it Upon receipt of $1 00 I will immediately send to the applicant a printed circular, containing full instructions in the Art which will be perfectly understood upon being once read

ATROCIOUS JUDGES!
LIVES OF JUDGES,
INFAMOUS AS
Tools of Tyranny and Instruments of Oppression
BY JOHN, LORD CAMPBELL
With an APPENDIX, containing the CASE OF PASSMORE WILLIAMSON
Edited with an Introduction and Notes
BY RICHARD HILDRETH
One Volume, 420 pages, 12mo Price $1 00
THE various man hunting expeditions which have within the last few years, been made into the North and the numerous trials including the Jerry, the Sims the Burns, and similar cases, and the crowning act of infamy enacted by JUDGE KANE UPON PASSMORE WILLIAMSON
have excited the profoundest indignation and alarm The Publishers believe, therefore that this amply attested and clearly drawn record of what judges have done, will lead the people to see what if unchecked, judges may still do

Philander Eddy, Ag't World's Safe Co, Chicago, Ill
DEAR SIR—You will notice by the New York papers that Lillie's Chilled Iron, Fire and Burglar Safes and Bank Locks, manufactured by the World's Safe Co Troy, N Y have as usual obtained another victory at the great Fair of the American Institute, held at the Crystal Palace over the combined sheet iron Safe makers, by securing the first premium on both Safe and Lock separately The Chicago certificate (since and posters are freely circulated here, but their making cannot defeat the known superiority of Lillie's Safes at the Crystal Palace Jurors have now confirmed what the jurors at the Detroit Fair decided the Chicago jurors duplicated, and the public reiterated that Lillie's Safe and Bank Lock are the best in the world Respectfully

News of the Morning.

The Baltic arrived yesterday with later news from Europe. A full synopsis will be found under the telegraph head. Breadstuffs show another advance and consols a further decline, both indicating a preliminary belief that the war is to continue. The K. N's. and Democrats at Washington, have both started new Candidates for Speaker. The Republicans stick, as they should, to Banks.

In our Supreme Court, yesterday, the motion of Mr. Bashford's Counsel, to take the control of his suit out of the hands of the Att'y. General, was denied. A report of the opinions of the Judges will be found in our paper. All comment thereon is necessarily deferred till our next.

The New York and our own market shows a firmer tone.

FROM MADISON.

Editorial Correspondence of the Sentinel.

Madison Jan. 23. 1856.

Talk about party drill! I remember very well that last winter, whenever the Republican majority carried any measure, the press in the interest of the other party used to talk about the perfect "drill" of the "Shanghais." And yet the cases where they pulled all together were only those whose subject matter was of a general and political nature. If a private and local matter was under consideration, they divided as men of different views might. But, this winter, every measure for which a leading democrat stands sponsor is pushed through under whip and spur, overriding all objection, however reasonable, and the Speaker putting the spurs to the lagging, by rapid and not always proper decisions,—not courteously, if legally proper.

A bill came up this morning which proposes to take eight towns from the east end of Marquette county and add them to Waushara county, making a new Marquette county, with Montello (Barstow and Kelsey's town) for the county seat. The people of Marquette county are to vote on the 14th of February on the subject, while Waushara has no vote at all! Spite of all reasons, all remonstrance, and members who wished to speak on the subject being choked down by the previous question, called by George P. Thompson, the bill was put through by the party drill.

Now, look at it! Here is a county proposed to be severed in a most absurd manner, as a glance at the map will show, for the benefit of private parties, and the people interested are to have two weeks' notice! How many people in Marquette County will be likely to know anything about the matter? I do not care one fig about the division of the county proposed, for I know nothing about it; but I do know that the method, and the mere fact of its being driven through the Assembly in such an unscrupulous manner, is clear enough evidence to my mind, that the object itself is wrong.

In Senate this morning a memorial was read by F. Huebschman, Supt. of Indian Affairs in this State, which, after detailing the policy adopted in the past, of removing the Indians out of the State, and more lately of allowing them to settle down upon lands out of the way of white settlers, recommends that the Legislature at this session adopt measures in amendment of the present laws which shall further restrain the evils of selling liquor to the Indians, and other wrongs of the intercourse of the whites with them. The Dr. having progressed so far as to see the evils of even a much restrained sale of liquors to Indians, it is to be hoped that some of these days, he and his political friends may begin to appreciate the evils of an unlimited sale among white men. The world moves!

At the instance of Mr. Hadley, a bill vacating part of Hathaway's subdivision was passed, under a suspension of the rules. If any one will look at the map, he will see about the upper end of Jackson St. 1st ward, a collection of small lots and "angling" streets, whereof one, of homœpathic proportions, is called Hahnemann St. This bill vacates the plot of these mean looking lots, and extends Jackson St. through the plat. All the owners desire it.

The morning was mostly occupied upon two resolutions, one ordering 2000 copies of the quasi Governor's Message and the accompanying documents, and the other ordering of the publisher of the Emigranten, 1000 copies of four of the documents in Norwegian. I have no space for a full report of the discussion, but the principal points made by the Senators are given briefly.

Those who spoke in favor were.—

Mr. Barnes, who urged that the documents were needed for distribution, and were being printed for the Assembly; that the Senate had recognized Mr. Barstow a Governor, and that it was important that the Committees should have the Message in a convenient form.

Mr. Dunn, that if the people ought to have the documents referred to in the message, they ought also to have the message referring to them.

Mr. Sutherland, that it was not just or generous to print the other document and refuse to print the Message; that he was not afraid of its contaminating his constituency.

Mr. O'Neil, who thought that more time was spent upon the subject than the documents would cost, and that it was beneath the dignity of the Senate to single out the message, and refuse to print it.

Mr. Gibson, who said that the people of the rural districts had been deceived by the "Shanghai" stories about the necessity of a large tax, and ought to see what Mr. Barstow says about it.

Mr. Kelsey, who said that the Senate of last winter took "upon trust," what the committee said about the necessity of a large tax.

On the other side, against printing at all, and in favor of excepting the messages if any were to be printed, there were—

Mr. Harvey, who said that all of the people who would read the message had already done so in the papers, and it was a mere waste of money; and that the Senate, on considering the facts last winter, voted unanimously for the $350,000 tax.

Mr. Worthington who said that the Message was not a respectable or respectful document, but, grossly insulting to the Senators who were here last session, and one which ought not to be spread before the people, since it contained the grossest falsehoods.

Mr. Taylor, who after acknowledging the want of the other documents, moved to table the resolution, in order that at a proper time a resolution ordering them might be framed. (This was lost 12 to 13; Mr. Sutherland voting with the Democrats.)

Mr. Harvey moved the exception of the Message, and upon this motion Mr. Taylor further argued that no sentiment of generosity or justice called for the ordering of it to be circulated by Republicans.

To a suggestion by Mr. Kelsey that there was no precedent for the refusal, and that the democrats and printed Gov. Farwell's Message, Mr Harvey replied that that Message was a just and proper document, while this one was a partizan document, full of untruths.

Mr. Clement opposed the printing. He alluded to the manner in which the Message undertakes to brand, as "fanatics and bigots" within 157 of half of the people of the State by the official count, and more than half in fact. He maintained that the people, by returning a democratic majority in the other House had not repudiated economy, but that their success arose from the use of money by the liquor party and on account of other parties—a state of things which would not occur again.

Mr. Cobb moved to amend by ordering also, copies of a narrative of Barstow's two journeys to Washington to "give Noonan a turn." This was declared out of order.

The resolution, ordering all was carried by the Democrats and Mr. Sutherland, 13 to 12.

Next came the resolution ordering 1000 copies of the documents in Norwegian. To this Mr. O'Neil moved to add 2000 copies in German of Schoeffler & Wendt. Amending further, by inserting B. Domschke instead of S and W., and carried, 13 to 12, a party vote.

Then followed amendments ordering documents in Welsh, French, Shanghai, Hindoo, Ojibwa, and while the fun was fast and furious, Senate adjourned without coming to any result. It is probable that there will be another shuffle to-morrow.

There is room for but one remark upon all this. I do not consider that time ill-spent which gives expression to the sentiments of almost the whole Republican Senate as to the shameless character of the document alluded to above. If the acting Governor desires to have his Message printed by the Republicans—and I don't suppose that he cares anything about it—he should write a fit one. Since self-respect will not allow Republicans to vote for printing it, no one ought to blame them, but all ought to praise them, for refusing to do so.

It is well understood that Mr. Sutherland's desire to provide for his Norwegian constituent, Mr. Heischer, as the democratic Assembly had provided for its editors of the same nationality, carried him to the length of opposition to all of the other Republican members. There are various matters which might be alluded to in consideration of this subject, if I had time, but this must suffice for to-day.

W. H. W.

The Gubernatorial Contest.

IN SUPREME COURT, JAN 24.

At the opening of the Court this morning, Chief Justice Whiton gave the decision of the Court on the motion of Mr. Bashford's counsel to have control of the suit, instead of the Attorney General. (It will be seen at the close that the application was for an alternative—for the whole control, or for leave to appear. The last seems to be granted.)

C. J Whiton read the motion, and mentioned the accompanying affidavits. He saw no substantial conflict between the affidavits on both sides.

It was apparent to the most casual observer that there are three parties here—the people, the relator and the respondent—and that the public interests are not hostile to those of either of the parties. Heretofore the Attorney General, as the officer of the people, has been allowed to manage such cases, as it seemed that the most vigorous prosecution would come from that source. The public is in no danger of detriment, because the interests of the other partes will bring out the facts for adjudication. Of course, this method would not be the best for all where the Attorney General does not act in good faith.

The question is, who shall have control of this suit, and the Att'y Gen'l and the Relator both ask it.

The Chief Justice here read the law, in R. S., chap. 126. He said that the information filed by the Att'y Gen'l and that sought to be filed, both set out such a case of intrusion into office as is contemplated in the law. That law gives the Att'y Gen'l power to proceed in his own name or that of the Relator Sec. 22 gives the Court power to inflict a fine of $2000 on the intruder, if found guilty. The Att'y Gen'l must prosecute to the end, but when the right is established, then the Relator may sue in his own name, for damages.

Counsel for relator contend that there is a difference between the two informations, and that when the Att'y Gen'l has commenced in the relator's name, he (the relator,) has a right to control the suit, as one of private right.

But the relator is not alone interested, the people are interested that the rightful person should have the office. The public interest steps in and modifies the private right; and this public interest is not hostile to either the relator's or the respondent's private right.

This case must be decided upon the various statutes. Numerous cases occur in English practice, but they are not paramount authority, unless in harmony with our statutes.

In reply to a query of the Court, counsel for relator said that one judgment of this Court would not be a bar to future proceedings. It would not, if there should be collusion between the parties. But the judgment to be rendered under the law of the R. S., is the same whether the Attorney General or the individual brings the suit. If the relator succeeds so far as to oust the defendant, and the proof shows still that the relator is not entitled, the Court may give judgment of ouster and fine, but the relator may not be admitted — So that this is not a private suit alone, but the relator's right is blended with that of the public.

But it is claimed that the law of '55 gives the right to the relator to sue in his own behalf.—(Reads the law).

It is not easy to give a satisfactory construction of this law, but after due consideration, it is certain that the right of the individual to proceed depends on compliance with the condition of an application to and refusal by the Attorney General. The relator contends that this condition has occurred. The chief justice here examined the affidavits concluding that that of Mr. Knowlton establishes a request made of the Attorney General.

Relator's counsel contend that a fair construction of the law requires that the Attorney General shall file the information presented to him, or if he neglects or refuses to do this, then the relator has the right to proceed.

What is the intent of the law of '55? Suppose the Attorney General had, of his own will, on the day after the Governor was sworn in, filed an information, could the Relator come next day and file another, and thus two suits proceed at once? Clearly not, and it is clear that the law contemplates a case where no information is filed, and the Attorney General absolutely refuses to move in the matter. It is hence not necessary to enquire which of the two informations is the best, or whether time is gained or lost; and the Court does not see that the contingency has arrived when it can interfere. The motion must be denied, without, however, expressing any opinion as to the course of the Court if the Attorney General shall show bad faith towards the Relator. There are three parties in Court, and the rights of all shall be protected, if the Court can protect them.

Justice Smith said that he concurred with the Chief Justice in the result announced, but his duty required him to state his views. It had been intimated that the jurisdiction of the Court would be contested. Sufficient to the day was the evil thereof, and that question is not at issue. The people framed their laws and created offices for their own use and benefit, and the object of all was the public good. Among them is that of Attorney General, who holds his office for the people and not for himself. He has two departments, those of the School Land Commissioner and of the Law. In the latter he appears here in Court, subject to its rules and decrees, so the Governor's office, with its dignities, is held for the people, who are interested deeply in it.

Judge Smith here recapitulated the history of the case, and the position of the parties in Court. It was conceded that, in the first instance, the suit must be carried on in the name of the office of the Attorney General, and it is only when that officer shows hostility to either party, or on leave granted, that the Relator can proceed of himself.

If the Relator and Respondent only were concerned, the decision would be easy. So if the Att'y General disclaimed control, or if the Legislature had left parties to such course as they pleased, then the position of parties could be easily fixed. But the Attorney General does not disdain control, and the Court cannot so construe the Act. The Legislature evidently did not contemplate a case where the Attorney General was hostile.—Hitherto those officers had chosen to stand aside, and let the litigants proceed. There is no just reason for antagonism between the Attorney General and either party: appearing for the people, it is his duty to see that the rightful person succeeds. If hostility of the Attorney General be charged, it is due to that officer that it be proved so as to leave no doubt.

The Constitution cannot be so circumscribed by legislation as to prevent the Court from protecting the rights of all parties; but the Court must follow the statutes where they are consistent with justice. (The Judge here considered Chap. 125, R. S., in reference to the duties of the Attorney General.)

In this case, the Attorney General has made Mr. Bashford the relator. Taking the affidavits together, it appears that there is a sufficient consent of Mr. Bashford. So the Attorney General has undertaken to protect the Relator's rights.—Show that he is hostile to them—to the person whom he says in his writ that he solemnly believes is entitled to the office, and it becomes a grave question how far the Court will dispense with his services.

The Attorney General does not seem to have refused to file, if not the information, at least one known to the law. But he has filed one and made Mr. Bashford the relator, and the Court cannot turn the Attorney General out of Court on the mere suggestion that one form is more expeditious than another. Nor does it sufficiently appear that the Attorney General refuses to consult with the Relator as to the management of the suit.

Counsel intimate delays in pleading, doubtless forgetting that the twenty day rule has been repealed, and short rules may be taken. Even if much time is taken, the Court cannot at present control the pleadings. If the Attorney General by this means shows hostility to the relator, it is then time to protect his rights.

The Attorney General has no such exclusive control as to prevent the counsel for the Relator from being heard, but has the same right to be heard as the Respondent.

Judge Smith closed by intimating his opinion that the rights of the relator in such cases were rather prejudiced than helped by the law of '55.

Mr. Knowlton—If the opinion of Justice Smith is to appear in the Reports, I wish it also to appear that the motion is not alone for full control, but for such order as would seem justice. If counsel for Relator can be justly associated in drawing the pleadings we are content.

Judge Smith.—The opinion is not written out fully.

Chief Justice Whiton—The court must either grant or refuse the application.

Mr. Knowlton—The court will see that it was drawn with a double aspect.

Chief Justice—If there is a difference as to pleadings, the Court will protect the rights of the parties.

Mr. Ryan—Asked what rights the relator had here.

The Attorney General says that every step must be taken according to his dictation. If so, is the relator not a mere spectator here?

Chief J. Whiton—The Court does not see the necessity of any hostility between the parties.—The Court will, if an emergency arises, see that the pleadings are fairly adjusted.

Attorney General Smith—If any paper relating to the pleadings, and proper to be filed, or any proper motion is submitted to me, and I refuse, I will submit to the order of the Court.

W. H. W.

Madison, Jan. 24, 1856.

I send you a report of the decision of the Supreme Court.

The Senate this morning ordered 1000 copies of the Reports, exclusive of the Message, in English; 1000 of the Reports of the Secretary of State, Superintendent, State Geologist, and School Land Commissioners, in Norwegian, of the Emigranten; 1000 do. in Dutch, of J. Quintus; 2000 of the State Geologist and Secretary of State, in German, of B. Domschke; and 2000 of the State Superintendent and the School Land Commissioners, in German, of C. Roeser, at 10c for each 32 pages.

W. H. W.

South Carolina for Franklin Pierce.

The Charleston Mercury is emphatically in favor of Mr. Pierce for the next Presidency, notwithstanding the vast body of the Democratic party are casting about for somebody else. The Mercury says:

> Our correspondent from Washington is right, we think, in saying that President Pierce is the natural and almost necessary candidate for the next Presidency. We fully believe that such is the general feeling of the Southern people.—Why, indeed, should they desire a change? Mr. Pierce has made good all his pledges—he has been emphatically the President of the people, of the law and of the Constitution. If we have a chance of getting something as good as his administration, we have no hopes of obtaining anything better.

The Slavery propagandists evince no more than common gratitude in standing by Pierce. He has used the whole power and influence of the Federal Government to nationalize Slavery, and to render Freedom sectional. Of course, the Slave-holders will go for him. What Freemen will do, remains to be seen.

Milwaukee and Fond du Lac Railroad.—A public meeting was held at West Bend, Washington county, on the 19th inst, in reference to the proposed "Air Line Railroad," from Milwaukee to Fond du Lac. The meeting was addressed by Gov. Tallmadge, President of the "Air Line" Company, and resolutions unanimously adopted by the meeting in favor of the route and against any alteration in the charter, or the granting of any other charter likely to interfere with the "Air Line;" and instructing the Senator and Assemblymen from Washington County, accordingly. The Washington County Democrat says that the meeting was numerously attended, the feeling enthusiastic and the determination expressed on all sides to put through the "Air Line" road, and make West Bend a point on the line.

Excommunicated.—The Democracy of St. Louis celebrated the 8th of January, by resolving that the President of the United States has forfeited all title to the support of the Democracy of the nation. They say further:

> That the violation by President Pierce of his plighted faith to maintain the compromises on the subject of slavery, has re-opened and renewed the agitation of that dangerous question, and brought us to the brink of civil war. His breach of faith is a natural consequence of his abandonment of Democratic principles, and his taking to his bosom the calumniators of Jackson, and the nullification coadjutors of Calhoun.

Live Hoax Clubs.—The N. Y. Times, noticing the rapid growth of these political fungi in New York City, says:

> "There are some thirteen Live Oak Clubs now in town, of which three are number ones. They are very full of harmony, and all of their meetings glowing speeches are made about the size of George Law, and the faithfulness of Jones' bust. Indeed, we are at a loss to discover whether the great object of the Clubs is to publish the bust or to practice Law."

A Daily at Janesville.—The proprietors of the Janesville Free Press announce their intention of publishing a Daily as soon as assurances of sufficient patronage are received. Janesville needs a daily paper, and cannot well get a better one than the Free Press would be. It is a spirited, well-conducted and reliable Republican journal.

Where We Got It.—In the hurry, last week, of issuing the message, we neglected to state that we received it in an extra from the Milwaukee Sentinel office, it having been telegraphed exclusively for that paper. Thank you, Mr. Sentinel.—Green Bay Advocate.

You are welcome, Mr. Advocate.

Population of New York.—The report of the census of New York shows that the population of the State, on the first day of June last, was 3,470,059. This is an increase since 1845 of 866,564, and, since 1850, of 372,665. There are 532,753 aliens included in the population. The number of voters in the State is as follows: Native, 516,745; naturalized, 135,076. Total, 651,821. The total population of the State upon which the legislative apportionment is to be made, after deducting aliens and colored persons not taxed, is 2,797,416. Five counties have decreased in population during the last ten years as follows: Cortland, 606; Greene, 820; Otsego, 774; Tompkins, 5,652, by the formation of Schuyler county; and Yates, 955.

In the city of New York there were of native voters 46,113; naturalized voters 42,702. Total native born 355,430; foreign born 274,350.

Real Estate,	$1,107,212,715
Personal Estate	294,012,564
Aggregate,	$1,402,849,564

The following is the taxation on the above valuation:

State Tax of 1½ mills	$1,863,561 17
County Taxes	7,917,503 19
Town Taxes	1,876,851 33
Total Taxation	$11,678,015 69

This makes the rate of tax 83-10 mills upon every $1 of valuation.

M. & M. Railroad.—This great work, by which the people of Western Wisconsin justly expect to be placed in communication and on a commercial equality with the east, we confidently believe will be completed through to Prairie du Chien before the first of January next. Something may occur by which the work may be interrupted, but we can not see what, unless a Schuyler fraud or the like; the company has the means, and their credit is good in the great mill hopper of New York, where everything is watched with even more impatience than a jealous husband observes the tricks of an imaginary rival.—That company for years struggled with poverty, jealousy, enmity and even ridicule, but, by industry and faithful discharge of duty have now become a power, first in credit, character and faith, east as well as west. We say again, we have the fullest confidence that the Milwaukee and Mississippi Railroad will be finished as soon as money and labor can do the work.—Grant Co. Herald.

Waupacca Vote!—We learn from undoubted authority that the testimony taken at Waupacca shows one of the most stupendious election frauds on record. That extra town sent in to the State Canvassers with 76 votes contained just three inhabitants.—The identity of some men who voted several times at Waupacca will be shown up by legal evidence.—Appleton Crescent [Dem.]

Janesville City Bank.—The capital of this Bank has been increased from $25,000 to $50,000. The following are the officers: H. B. Bunster, President; Samuel Lightbody, Vice President; and Josiah T. Wright, Cashier. The bank now stands high in the confidence of the business community, and has its full share of patronage.—Janesville Free Press.

The Church of St. Stephen in Vienna—The Church of the Capuchins—The Church of the Augustines, and their monumental tombs—Presburg—The Danube and its scenery—Pesth and Buda—Is Uncle Sam prepared for war?—Towns on the Danube—Private apartments.

Orsova, Oct 25, 1855.

I cannot take leave of the interesting and fascinating city of Vienna without mentioning to my readers some of the churches and their monumental tombs. The Church of St. Stephen is an immense pile, built at different periods, from 1359 to 1480. One part, however, are the remains of a previous church completed as long ago as 1147. It is of immense size, being 345 feet in length by 230 feet in width. A writer speaking of it says, "All that is lofty, imposing and sublime in the Gothic style of architecture is united in the cathedral." The external architecture as well as the internal, together with the rich tracery is very rich and beautiful. It has two towers, one being 212 feet high, and the other 434 feet, very nearly, if I am not mistaken, as high as that of St. Peters at Rome. From the top of this magnificent spire, which gradually diminishes from the bottom upwards, in regular retreating arches, one above the other, a charming view of the city and surrounding country may be had. But before the stranger gets to the summit he will be tired and want to stop and see the half dozen bells that are suspended about three-quarters the distance up. The largest one weighs 38,000 pounds, and was cast from the 180 pieces of cannon taken from the Turks in 1683, after they were repulsed before the city walls.

The great clock, too, on the way up is a curiosity. Its wheels look as if they belonged to the gearing of a grist mill, and when it ticks it sounds like a blow of a sledge upon an anvil. Here, too, is found a man who always lives here day and night. From each of the windows, which are numerous, there are telescopes so graduated that a fire occurring any where in the city, night or day, the spot is at once indicated on a chart, and a despatch enclosed in a hollow brass ball dropped down through a pipe leading to the bottom of the tower, gives the requisite information to the firemen.

The most remarkable tomb in this church, is that of Frederick III. It is of marble, and ornamented with 240 figures, and forty coats of arms. In a side chapel not far off, is that of the hero, Prince Eugene, of Savoy. But the most imposing of all the monuments I saw in this city, and one that cannot but affect the coldest heart, even if not containing the ashes of the good and virtuous, is the one erected to the memory of the arch duchess Christiana, in the church of the Augustines' by Canova. This is considered the great work of this eminent artist. Against one of the sides of this church is a pillar of greyish marble about thirty feet high, in the front of which are side steps to a broad base before a door, which represents an entrance to a gloomy vault. On each side, slowly ascending to this door are two melancholy groupes in marble statuary of the size of life. The one on the right consists of Virtue, holding in her hands an urn containing the ashes of the dead, to deposite them in the tomb, accompanied by two twin sisters holding torches in their hands to light the gloomy way. On the left is represented Benevolence, a female figure with a sweet countenance, supporting on her arm an old man bowed down with age, infirmity and grief. As he slowly advances to the grave of his benefactress, his limbs seem to totter, and his whole frame to be convulsed with this last effort of worn and wearied-out nature. The old man is accompanied by a little child bending its head with infantine sorrow, and crossing its little hands upon his breast.

All the figures exhibit countenances of profound sadness and heart felt sorrow. Over the entrance to the tomb is a medallion of the true likeness of the arch duchess herself, held up by a figure representing happiness, while opposite on the wing is an angel presenting to her the palm of triumph. These last named figures are represented in relief. At a little distance to the right of old age and infancy, lies in repose a lion, looking as if he, too, felt sorrowing, while reclining beside him, is seen a desponding angel.

The Capuchins' Church contains the burial vault of the Imperial Family. Accompanied by a Capuchin brother holding a torch, I slowly descended into this abode of the great dead, yet now as small as their humblest subjects. In a dark room, far under the church, side by side in different rooms, are some 70 or 80 metalic coffins.—Some of them are surrounded with splendid propiles and adorned with gorgeous traceries.—Those of Margaret of Spain, first wife of Leopold I., that of Joseph I., and those of Maria Theresa, her husband Francis, and son Joseph II., are the most splendid. They are of solid silver. I took great interest, but with feelings of unfeigned regret, when I stood by the side of the sarcophagus containing the remains of the Duke of Reichstadt, the only son of the great Napoleon. He died here a number of years ago at the early age of twenty-one years. Near him repose the ashes of his maternal grand-father, the late Emperor of Austria, who is said to have almost worshipped him in life, and in dying requested that they might in death lie side by side. Traveller on the earth and to eternity, visit this sacred spot, hallowed by the memory and the presence of the august dead, and if your heart be sad at the silence and coldness that continually reign there, it will awaken to the truth that its own pulsations must at some hour, not far distant, cease, and its throbbings find a repose equally as cold and silent!

Bidding adieu to some kind friends, and having purchased a ticket for Constantinople by the way of the Danube, I prepared to take my leave of the city, it seeming to me the last place of civilization I shall see for a long while. The expense is about the same as from New York to Liverpool and takes the same length of time, although the distance is less than 200 miles. This is occasioned from the fact that one company has got the sole right, for a long term of years, of navigating the river, fixing just such prices as they choose to extort, and having no fear of competition.

The first place of importance seen is Presburg, a city on the Danube, and once the capital of Hungary, after Buda fell into the hands of the Turks in 1541, and where their ancient Kings were crowned. It contains a population of nearly 50,000 inhabitants. It was here in 1741 the then youthful Maria Therese, deserted by most of her subjects and allies, except Great Britain, appeared in deep mourning before a deputation of the Hungarian estates. Dressed in the Hungarian garb, of great personal beauty and eloquent in tears, with the crown of St. Stephen on her head, and girt armed with his sword, she addressed them in Latin, and laid before them the dangers and misfortunes which seemed to threaten the commencement of her reign on all sides.—The true and noble chivalry of the Magyars was excited, and with the loyalty and devotion so common to the race, and perhaps excited too with a religious enthusiasm at seeing the relics of a saint they worshipped, they rallied around her standard from the remotest corner of her Kingdom and succeeded in maintaining herself and crown.

Previous to reaching Pesth, the Danube spread itself out into several branches, each a large river of itself, and for miles they were lost sight of, being hidden in the forests. The country is generally very level and monotonous. In the distance, however, on the left bank, is seen the Carpathian mountains stretching along, with their dark summits on a parallel with the river.

Pesth, the capital of Hungary, including Buda on the opposite side, which holds about the same relation to it as Brooklyn does to New York, contains a population of 125,000 inhabitants, and is one of the most interesting and picturesque cities in this part of Europe. The former is on a plateau of the river with a gradual ascent to the country, while the latter is situated to the best advantage for a fine view on the high bluffs which rise very abruptly on the right bank. The city has a busy and bustling-like appearance, the buildings are many of them very large and regular like those of Vienna, and the quays are of solid masonry. Indeed in their substantial appearance and the activity that prevails around them, together with the great number of steamboats and vessels moored in port, it is seen at once that the commerce of the Danube is important and of great magnitude.

The two cities are connected together by one of the most magnificent suspension bridges in the world. The river here is compressed into the width of 1200 feet, runs with great impetuosity, and is 50 feet deep. The height of the great towers supporting the chains is more than 200 feet, inclusive of the foundations. There are two collossal statues of lions, as well as other appropriate statuary that adorn this splendid bridge.

The Kansas Free Constitution—Prospects for the Future.

Mr. M. W. Delahay, late Editor of the Territorial Register at Leavenworth arrived in the city on Saturday, on his way to Washington, as bearer of the Free Constitution lately adopted by the people of Kansas, and favored us with a call. He was in nomination for Congress under the New Constitution in the Leavenworth district—The election was held last Tuesday, and as no opposition was anticipated beyond the interference of the "ruffians," Mr. Delahay is probably elected. Kansas is now fully organized into a State, and as soon as the House can obtain a Speaker will be knocking for admission into the Union. The whole question between the great body of the people of Kansas and the outside government forced upon them will then be presented for the consideration of Congress.

Mr. Delahay gives an encouraging account of affairs in Kansas generally. The people are animated by the best and the most determined spirit. The ruffians have no disposition to repeat their foray against Lawrence. In the height of their anger and disappointment at being compelled to retreat so ignominiously, they threatened to hang Gov. Shannon if they could catch him, and he was so well satisfied of their disposition to carry their threat into execution, that he took good care to keep out of their way. Mr. Delahay expresses the firm conviction that Kansas is destined to become a free State—that no power can make it any thing else. The Free State men, he says, outnumber the pro-slavery portion of the population four or five to one, and by virtue of that most potent institution, Sharpe's rifle, will hereafter be able to hold all outside ruffians in check.

Shortly before leaving Kansas, Mr. Delahay paid a visit to Lawrence, which he found in the best possible state of defence, or in a condition to be made so on a very short notice. With the exception of Col. Lane, its defenders have had no regular military training, yet its fortifications would do no discredit to the best scientific engineer. The women are heroines worthy of their valiant husbands, and can handle Sharpe's rifles to a charm. Mr. Delahay said he considered himself a pretty fair shot, but almost any of them could beat him in sharp-shooting, putting a bullet into the bull's-eye of the target, or ringing a small bell at a long distance at almost any fire. With such heroines to inspire and aid such heroes as the men of Lawrence have proved themselves to be, and a similar spirit throughout the people at large, Mr. Delahay's confidence that Kansas is bound to become a free State, seems to be pretty well founded.—Chicago Dem. Press, Jan. 21.

The News-Boy's Home.

We passed an hour, last evening, in the school-room of the News Boy's Home. Mr. Tracy was talking to a group of about twenty, who eagerly listened to his story, about the boys who have gone out in the country to fill places. After which the boys sang a Hymn, and Mr. Herties made a good time talk. Another Hymn followed and Mr. Tracy read a couple of letters from News-Boys, recently gone west to fill places. One Tommy Dolan, who is in a printing office in the town of Clyde, Wayne county, N. Y., where he is making good headway as an apprentice. His letter was well written and spirited.

The other was from "Yankee," and his business partner, "Little Eddy," both of whom were sent out a few weeks since to fill an order of Mr. Fillmore, of the Milwaukee Sentinel, asking Mr. Tracy to send him on a couple of most active news-boys to aid him in selling the Sentinel on the steamboats and cars, also to take a route in the City for the distribution of the numerous copies of the Daily Times and other New York papers which he has forwarded by express to his agency. Yankee states in his letter that he and Eddy are now making from $10 to $12 per week, and that when they get fairly at work they will make a much larger sum.

They pay, he says, twenty shillings per week for board, and were very busy, very comfortable, contented and happy. Yankee was an especial favorite in our business office, where his good nature, waggish pranks and sharp sayings, were much relished.

A gentleman called a few days since, and took a couple of the boys out and dressed them up, buying each two suits of clothes, and in every way fitting them out nicely; after which he took them home with him to Minnesota, to live with him and be educated under his own eye—each to receive 160 acres of land when they become of age, with the choice of business.—*N. Correspondence of the Albany Evening Journal.

Death of Mrs. Gordon.

Poughkeepsie, Jan. 18.

Mrs Gordon (wife of Mr. G who was killed by the Railroad Collision near this place) died this morning at 7½ o'clock. No change took place in her condition from the time of the accident up to within an hour or two of her death, when she ceased raving, and calmly passed away, but without any apparent return to consciousness of mind or recognition of her relatives present.

The brothers of Mr. Gordon are here and will convey the remains of the husband and wife to their late home in the Canada West, for interment.

How a human being could for eight day's survive such agonies as this poor woman has endured is astonishing, and it may without impropriety be added, that under all the circumstances her death is not to be regretted. Her age was 40 years, and she leaves no children to mourn her fate.

The remainder of the injured are doing well, and no more deaths are anticipated.

Franklin on Slavery.—When Benjamin Franklin was 84 years of age, the last public labor of his long and useful life, the formation of the Federal Constitution, having just before been completed, he wrote the following letter to his friend and Revolutionary compatriot, John Laudon, then Governor of New Hampshire, and afterward Democratic Vice President of the United States:

"Philadelphia, Aug. 4, 1788.

"Sir: The Pensylvania Society for promoting the Abolition of Slavery and the relief of free negroes unlawfully held in bondage, have taken the liberty to request your Excellency's acceptance of a few copies of their constitution and the laws of Pensylvania which relate to one of the objects of their institution; also of a copy of Thomas Clarkson's excellent essay upon the Commerce and Slavery of the Africans.

"The Society have heard with great regret that a considerable part of the slaves who have been sold in the Southern States since the establishment of peace have been imported in vessels fitted out in the State over which your Excellency presides. From your Excellency's station, they hope your influence will be exerted hereafter to prevent a practice which is so evidently repugnant to the political principles and forms of government lately adopted by the citizens of the United States, and which cannot fail of delaying the enjoyment of the blessings of liberty by drawing down the displeasure of the great and impartial Ruler of the Universe upon our country.

"I am, in behalf of the Society,
"Sir, y'r mo. ob'd't servant,
"B. FRANKLIN.

"His Excellency J. Langdon, Esq."

No man was ever further than Benjamin Franklin from being a "fanatic," an "agitator," a medler with other people's buisiness, yet here was a case which Pensylvania had no direct concern in—a case of the importation of slaves by citizens of New Hampshire, hundreds of miles distant on one side and their sale to citizens of Carolina and Georgia, still further off in an opposite direction.

A New Governor for Kansas.

We heard a rumor last evening from a source which entitles it to credit, that ex-Governor Baker of New Hampshire, is to be appointed Governor of Kansas, in the place of Governor Shannon, who is now on his way to Washington for the purpose of resigning his commission. Governor Baker, as our readers will remember, has recently sold his property in Concord, N. H., with the idea of removing to the west. He was in this city yesterday, on his way to Washington.—Boston Journal, 13th.

Malice again Disappointed.—It will be seen by a telegraphic dispatch in another column, that the latest effort "to give Noonan a turn," has proved a signal failure.—Madison Journal.

Daniel Webster and Mr. Banks.

To the Editor of the New York Daily Times:—

Sir: Seven weeks after the Assembling of Congress, the House of Representatives remains unorganized, and the Government paralyzed, because of the dire consequences that, in the apprehension of certain gentlemen, would follow the election of a presiding officer preferred by thirty votes more than have yet been concentrated on any other candidate. It is universally conceded that no man surpasses Mr. Banks in personal qualifications for the Speaker's Chair; but his election will be the triumph of sectionalism—a blow struck at the Union!

We think it should calm the agitated nerves of these horror-stricken gentlemen, to remember that Mr. Banks and the Republican Party occupy precisely the position taken by Mr. Webster, not only in several not-to-be-forgotten previous speeches, but also boldly and strongly in his speech of March 7, 1850. The principle flung to the breeze on the flag of the Republican Party, is "No extension of Slavery to territory now free." It is a principle to which the brightest stars in our political firmament irrevokably committed themselves in recorded debate. Mr. Webster would not legislate where he believed immutable physical laws had shut Slavery out; as he maintained, erroneously, we believe, was the case in New-Mexico and Utah.

"I would not," he said, "take pains uselessly to reaffirm an ordinance of nature, nor to reënact the will of God. I would put in no Wilmot Proviso for the mere purpose of a taunt or a reproach. I would put into it no evidence of the votes of a superior power, exercised for no purpose but to wound the pride, whether a just and rational pride or an irrational pride, of the citizens of the southern States."

But let it be shown that there is danger of Slavery getting a foothold, and the memories of Plymouth Rock and Bunker Hill will let the stout heart of the noble old man still its beatings no longer. If freedom requires it, he will act. Utah and New Mexico, by congressional prohibition, if it be called for to make sure the result, shall be kept free from the polluting touch of slavery.

" * * * I propose to inflict no such wound upon anybody, unless something essentially important to the country and efficient to the preservation of liberty and freedom is to be effected. * * * Sir, wherever there is a substantial good to be done, WHEREVER THERE IS A FOOT OF LAND TO BE PREVENTED FROM BECOMING SLAVE TERRITORY, I AM READY TO ARREST THE PRINCIPLE OF THE EXTENSION OF SLAVERY. I am pledged to it from the year 1837; I have been pledged to it again and again; AND I WILL PERFORM THOSE PLEDGES; but I will not do a thing unnecessarily that wounds the feelings of others, or that does discredit to my own understanding."

So spoke Mr. Webster in his famous 7th of March speech.

But so for Mr. Banks to speak is treason to the Union! The acknowledgment by the Democratic Party of the doctrine that WHEREVER THERE IS A FOOT OF LAND TO BE PREVENTED FROM BECOMING SLAVE TERRITORY THE EXTENSION OF SLAVERY SHALL THERE BE ARRESTED, would be the instant dissolution of the Republican Party, that is formed solely to assert that principle. The assertion of the principle events make vital to its practical realization. If this is disunion, Mr. Banks and Daniel Webster are fellows in treason.

The Speakership.

Washington, Monday, Jan. 21, 1855.

We are now visibly approaching the end of the contest for Speaker. Only one ballot was taken to-day, on which Banks needed a change of seven votes to elect him. Several buncombe propositions were successively made and tabled, after the House had emphatically refused to rescind the anti-speaking rule adopted on Saturday. Fuller and Pennington declined; and finally Carlisle (South American) moved that Gov. Williams Smith of Virginia be Speaker, and obtained the previous question thereon. Only 47 voted in the affirmative—less than 20 Democrats, the rest South Americans. Adjourned.

I think an effort will be made to-night and to-morrow to concentrate the Democratic and South American vote on one candidate, and then move a plurality rule. If the effort fails, I believe we shall have a result somehow this week, perhaps on Wednesday. The impatience of the Government and citizens for an organization is very great. Forney says he has never thought of abandoning the Clerkship till superseded.

The Snow is fair sleighing depth, and the skies Wintry.

LIABILITIES.

Unsettled claims for Losses and not due $174,092 47

The Ætna Insurance Company presents its patrons the very satisfactory condition, of a large increase in Cash Assets, for the further security of their policies—all our investments being placed at the minimum market value, at the present time of some depression in the standard of same. They are either prime dividend paying stocks, or good, valuable and clean investments, yielding moderate interest and income. The standard basis on which the Assets have been valued, being Gold at interest. Besides this solidity, the Company calls attention to the strength and security it derives from its combined system of Agencies, through its agents having the means of presenting a united phalanx of experienced Underwriters, which has worked, for thirty-seven years, the happiest results to stockholders, and claimants for losses—and enables it to enter the year 1856, with greater prestige for future usefulness, than has yet been reached by a really National Insurance Corporation.

All business attended to with despatch and fidelity.

Police Court, Jan. 24.

August Brown, for resisting an officer was fined $5,00 on his plea of guilty; his wife, Florentine Brown, for the same offence, was discharged for want of prosecution.

James Malay, for leaving his team unhitched, paid the penalty of $2,00.

The defendant was accompanied by a Kilkenny Lawyer, a neighbor of his, who went into a long argument, in a very saucy manner, to the Court, stating that if he was in the auld country he would not be fined for such an offence, where he could show that he was ignorant of the existence of such a law as the one under which he had been arrested. That such was the ruling of the English Courts.

The Police Justice quietly informed him that the common law of England was the common law of this country, and that ignorance on the part of the citizen, or subject, of the law, was no excuse for a violation of its provisions in either country. The Washington County farmer was not to be enlightened even from the "woolsack," and followed up his remarks by stating that if he had known that, "he'd never 'av come to this country," and added, "may be you'll find out next election."

The Court having listened for some time patiently to a strain of insulting and impertinent language, told the Kilkenny gentleman that, but for his being satisfied that he (the farmer) was a stranger to courts, and ignorant of the respect due to them, he should send him to jail for twenty-four hours for contempt of of Court. This was a poser, and put an end to the Kilkenny man's eloquence, who advised his friend to pay the the $2,00, which was done, and the lawyer and client left the court.

NO LECTURE TO-NIGHT.—No one has been found to fill the place of HENRY W. HILLIARD, of Alabama, who fails of his engagement for to-night by reason of sickness.

The remaining lectures of the Course are as follows:

Feb. 1—PROF. C. C. FELTON, of Cambridge,

Feb. 8—GEORGE SUMNER, of Boston,

Feb. 15—JOHN G. SAXE.

Feb. 22—BISHOP CLARKE, of Rhode Island.

which complete the regular course.

We are to have in addition Rev. E. H. CHAPIN and OLIVER WENDELL HOLMES, and possibly others.

THACKERAY cannot come before warm weather, and Dr. KANE refuses for the present.

BRILLIANT FESTIVAL. On Wednesday evening a party was given by two gentlemen of this city to their friends and acquaintances of both sexes, which for its novelty and success, deserves at least a brief mention among our local items. Young's Hall was the scene of the festivities; the floor having been covered with heavy white sheeting, stretched perfectly smooth, and sofas, lounges, chairs, pier-tables and other handsome articles of furniture disposed about the apartment, giving the whole the air of an elegant and spacious Drawing Room. The music occupied the stage, and the Southern end of the Hall, which is raised a foot or two above the rest, was curtained off for a Supper Room, and tastefully decorated and furnished. The small room on the West-side of the main Hall was very prettily fitted up as a Boudoir and Dressing Room were provided on the first floor. The Company commenced assembling about half past 8, and by 10 the Hall was brilliantly filled, presenting an array of loveliness quite dazzling to contemplate. The music, furnished from the Orchestra of the Musical Society, was excellent; and the Supper by BELDEN was a triumph of culinary and caterer's skill. The dancing was kept up with infinite zest and enjoyment till far beyond midnight and few of the guests went home till morning. Among the two or three hundred present were several ladies and gentlemen from Chicago, and a brilliant representation of the beauty, taste and intellect of our own city. It was altogether the most elegant entertainment ever given in Milwaukee, and could not easily be surpassed in any City of the West. May we "look upon its like again."

GAME.—At the present time there is an abundance of game in the city, Deer, Quails, Prairie Hens, Partridges, &c., are plenty, and are selling at moderate prices. We allude to this fact simply to call the attention of the public and dealers that the 1st of February is near at hand—that's all.

FRESH COD FISH.—At LAYTON'S Meat Market epicures can find fresh Cod Fish direct from New York, by express; they can also find at CLARK'S Family Grocery, opposite the Sentinel office, the celebrated London Anchovy sauce, as an accompaniment for the Cod Fish.

PEOPLE'S BOOT AND SHOE STORE.—No. 225 East Water street, is now opened as the People's Boot and Shoe Store, by Daniel Hurtiz, with an extensive assortment of Boots and shoes, Ladies' Gaiter Boots, Morocco Boots, Children's Shoes, &c. Boots and Shoes made to order and all kinds of repairing done on the shortest notice.

GRECIAN PAINTING.—By an advertisement elsewhere, it will be seen that Miss B. J. FINLAYSON, who is staying at Hershey's Boarding House, corner of Spring and Third streets, is giving lessons in the beautiful and simple art of Grecian painting. A few lessons is all that is needed to ensure success in this elegant style of painting.

DOG FOUND.—The clerk of Messrs. Kellogg & Strong, found yesterday forenoon, a clean bred and handsome liver-colored Pointer dog, on the lake shore at the foot of Huron street, with a chain attached to him. The dog is now at the Warehouse of Kellogg & Strong, and can be had by the owner after paying for this notice.

FIRST VESSEL THIS SEASON.—Yesterday, the schooner Caroline, from Chicago, bound to Sheboygan with a deck load of hay and cargo of provisions, was off the harbor.

DRY GOODS AT MACK'S.—The ladies will observe in this morning's paper, another of these fascinating advertisements of MACK & BROS., detailing the numerous advantages to be derived from purchasing their Dry Goods, &c., at their establishment.

Photography.

For the past few days the principal baiting place on East Water street, has been at No. 201, before a new and attractive show of Portraits, bearing the modest inscription "BROWN'S PHOTOGRAPHY." Stop with the crowd and participate in their admiration. See those rich toned miniatures, so perfect in delineation, so natural in position, so graceful in drapery, and so rich in tone and finish, that you are at once satisfied they come from the hand of an artist who has left behind the school of chance success for habitual certainty. Observe the easy attitude, the graceful pose, and congratulate the human family of parents, brothers, sisters, cousins, lovers, that they can henceforth possess in one a faithful portrait and a pleasing picture. They are taken from miniature to life-size, and BROWN is now finishing some in water colors, cabinet size, which are exquisite gems. Our friends who have seen this style of portraits in the rooms of Whipple & Black, or Massury & Sillsbee, Boston, and Gurney, or Root of New York, will need no urging to go to Brown's. jan24b3491t

The plan adopted in teaching, combines practice with theory; instead of using Text Books the pupils are exercised in making original entries of every day business transactions—Journalising, Posting, Balancing Accounts, Opening and Closing a great variety of different Setts of Books, both for Partnership and Individual Business; where the business has been properous and adverse—and thus qualifying the student for entering into the practical duties of the Accountant, in any kind of business.

THE COURSE OF INSTRUCTION will consist of DOUBLE ENTRY BOOK-KEEPING, embracing every department of Trade and Mercantile Accounts, viz: Wholesale and Retail, Commission, Exchange, Banking, Manufacturing, Shipping, Individual, Partnership, Joint Stock and Compound Company Business. Also Commercial Calculations, Penmanship, Lectures on the Science of Accounts, &c.

Pupils are instructed individually, and not in classes, so that Students may enter at any time and proceed in the ratio of their capacity and assiduity.

HOURS OF INSTRUCTION, viz: From 9 to 12 M., from 2 to 4 and from 7 to 9 o'clock, P. M.

TERMS:

For one Scholarship, which entitles the holder of it to a full course of Instruction $40,00

N. B. Until the completion of my new College Building, I will offer the following inducements, viz: Any one person subscribing One Hundred Dollars, will be entitled to four Scholarships at $25 $100

Any one person subscribing Five Hundred Dollars, will be entitled to twenty-five Scholarships at $20 $500

The Scholarships will be transferable, and each one entitles the holder to a full course of Instruction.

DUMB MADE TO SPEAK!

STUTTERING, STAMMERING,

And Impediment of Speech effectually cured, without

SURGICAL OPERATION,

By Doct. H. STARK.

ALTHOUGH this freak of nature has perplexed and put to defiance the ingenuity of the combined intelligent universe, he promises so effectually cure as to make it impossible to those submitting to his treatment to stutter if they try. The afflicted will be safe in giving him a call, as he will in no case whatever receive a person's money without giving satisfactory evidence of a permanent cure.

Ladies and youths treated at their residences if required.

Dr. S. has taken rooms at the New York Hotel, East Water street, (east side) Milwaukee, where he may be consulted free of charge, for this week only.

MASSACHUSETTS

MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO.

Capital, $200,000.

STATE OF WISCONSIN, } ss. SECRETARY'S OFFICE, }

Satisfactory evidence having been furnished to me that the Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company, being an Insurance Company, incorporated by the State of Massachusetts, is possessed of the Actual Capital required by the seventh section of an act, entitled "an Act to provide for the incorporation of Insurance Companies," approved February 9th, 1850.

Now, Therefore, in pursuance of the Act aforesaid, I John W. Hunt, Assistant Secretary of State, of the State of Wisconsin, do hereby certify that Lucius Cummings, is be duly authorized by said Company, may take Risks, Receive Premiums, and transact the business of an Insurance Agent for said Company in this State, from this date until the thirty-first day of January next.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and affixed the Great Seal of the State, at the Capitol in Madison, this 15th day of August, 1855.

JOHN W. HUNT, Ass't Sec'y of State.

Capital and accumulations of the above named Insurance Company, $205,000, all paid, and invested according to the laws of Wisconsin, (as the above certificate shows.) The accumulations are to be divided every five years, as provided in the charter of the Company, which is perpetual!

The Company having complied with the Law of Wisconsin, and established a Branch Office at Chicago, Ill., (it being practically a Home Office of the West) where they write Policies, Pay Losses, and transact any business pertaining to the Home Office.

CATHOLIC

BOARDING SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES'

THIS INSTITUTION is on Nemahbin Lake in Wisconsin, thirty miles west of the City of Milwaukee, and about two miles from Pine Lake Station on the Milwaukee and Watertown Railroad.

To many of the inhabitants of Milwaukee, the remarkable beauty and healthiness of the situation is already known. The house stands on a high point of land between the Nemahbin and Lower Nashotah Lakes, commanding a full view of both. The building is of stone, in English Cottage style, having a Southern exposure upon Lake Nemahbin, with full length piazzas on the front and two sides. It contains eleven chambers, a parlor, dining room, study, kitchen, washroom and bathroom.

Pupils of all denominations received.

The year is divided into two sessions of five months each, beginning on the 1st Mondays of February and September. The course of study comprises all the ordinary branches of a thorough English education, and when desired, Music, Latin, French and Italian.

TERMS:

Payable in every instance, half yearly in advance, $150 per Annum, including the English course, board, bedding fuel, lights and washing.

Latin, French, and Italian, per session, $10,00 each. Piano, per session, $20,00. Singing, per session, $4,00.

CITY LAND OFFICE,

Corner of East-Water and Wisconsin Streets.

IN a few days we will have Spring, and there will be a general rush for Real Estate, both in the city and country. There are already several applications for residences and lots, but owing to the intense cold weather, and being compelled to help in the house myself, I have not been able to show property to those who have made application. In a few days we will have the spring sun, and I will be able to attend to my Land business with that attention it requires. All who want to make any purchases will find me, as soon as the thermometer gets above zero, at my place of business at 8½ o'clock A. M., to 5 o'clock P. M., and I will have my horses and carriage in readiness to show property in any part of the city that may be for sale.

I have several dwelling lots for sale, and I would call attention of all who wish to secure themselves a house, to be in time, for I had the information that as soon as the Spring fairly opens, there will be from four to five hundred more families from the East and South, intending to make Milwaukee their home. CALEB WALL, jan11 General Land Agent.

CITY LAND OFFICE.

I AM now preparing my room, corner of East Water and Wisconsin Streets, and arranging my maps for the Real Estate Trade, which will commence in a week or two. I have the list of some property left with me last fall.

I would say to my friends that they will please call and fix prices and terms so that I can be prepared for operations in time.

I will give a report of sales of Real Estate once a week as soon as business gets fairly under way. I have made some large sales within the last two months, which have been reported, I see, through the Recorder's office.

I am now preparing for the Spring business, which will open very brisk. As soon as the thermometer gets above zero, I will give particular and personal attention to the selling of all property left in my hands for sale. My charges will be satisfactory.

I have been engaged in Land Business for a long time, and keep myself posted every ten minutes in the day.

WISCONSIN LEGISLATURE.

Morning Session.

MADISON, Jan. 24.

ASSEMBLY.—Met at 10 o'clock. Speaker pro tem in the Chair.

Resolutions.—H. H. Gray offered a resolution to furnish members with laws of 1852, printed by Mr. Sholes at 50 cents. Passed.

Bills Introduced.—Mr. Bird introduced several bills, which were referred to the committee on claims.

Bill to confirm the charter of Osceola Seminary.

An act to incorporate the Sturgeon Bay and Lake Michigan Canal Company.

A bill to regulate the terms of the 7th Judicial Circuit.

The House resolved itself into a committee of the whole, Mr. H. H. Gray in the chair. The general file of bills was taken up.

Bill relating to the Southport and Beloit Plank Road Co., directing Justices to regulate the road, reported back.

Bill to maintain a dam across the Little River, referred to committee on Judiciary.

Bill to maintain and to keep a ferry across the Wisconsin rivers in Sauk and Dane counties, referred to the committee on bridges, ferries &c.

Bill to lay out a State Road from Argyle to Avon, Lafayette Co.; referred to the committee on roads.

The committee then rose and reported progress.

Adjourned till to-morrow morning.

Senate met at 10 o'clock. Prayer by Father Etchnian.

Mr. Sutherland moved to reconsider the resolution adopted yesterday, ordering 2000 copies of the public documents, and offered a substitute ordering 1000 copies, including the Message of the Governor de facto.

De facto was stricken out, and the substitute adopted.

Bills introduced.—To extend time for collection of taxes in city of Kenosha. Rules suspended and bill passed.

Also bill of same nature in Delafield—passed.

Bill to authorize construction of a bridge across Fox River.

Bill to appropriate to Dr. Ray Hunt $667 51.

Mr. Taylor, from the Judiciary Committee, which was directed to examine the returns in the office of Secretary of State, of the election held last November, so far as they referred to canvass of vote for Governor, made a long report, but declined making any recommendations in regard to the matter.

Two thousand copies ordered printed. Adjourned till 3 P. M.

In the Supreme Court this morning, Chief Justice Whiton gave the decision of the Court, overruling the motion of Mr. Bashford's counsel to have control of the suit for the seat of Governor. Justice Smith also gave an opinion. The Court intimated that they could not, on what appears, turn the Attorney General out of Court, as he is supposed to represent the people's right, but at a future time should he appear to be hostile to the relator, Bashford, then the court would protect his rights. The court also say that counsel for the relator may appear in the suit as well as those of the respondent. D.

Afternoon Session.

MADISON, Jan. 24.

SENATE.—Met at 3 o'clock. Senator Dunn in the Chair.

Senate bills from Assembly read and referred.

Bills Passed.—Extending time for Taxes in Leads, Columbia county, Baraboo and Racine.

Appropriating $39 39 cents to I. S. Sherwood, for State Prison.

On motion proceeded to elect a President pro tem.

1st. Ballot.—Harvey, 3; Sholes, 10; Taylor, 8; Clement, 2. 2nd. Ballot.—Harvey, 11; Sholes, 11; Clement, 2; Taylor, 1. 3rd. Ballot.—Harvey, 12; Sholes, 11; Clement, 2. 4th. Ballot.—Harvey, 16; Sholes, 4; Dunn, 5; Hadley, 1.

Smith, Gill, and Rose, Democrats, voted with Republicans for Harvey. Mr. Harvey voted for Sholes. The President pro tem. returned thanks on taking the chair, and Senate adjourned.

ARRIVAL OF THE BALTIC!

NEW YORK, Jan. 24, 11 A. M.

Arrival of the Baltic. Flour advanced shilling on week. Wheat four pence. Corn dull. Beef lower. Consols down half. Money very stringent. F. A. A.

SIX O'CLOCK REPORT.

Additional Foreign News.

The new iron steamship Persia, of the Cunard line, had arrived at Liverpool from Clyde, under the command of Capt. Judkins, of the Arabia. The Persia's speed from Greenock to Liverpool averaged 16 knots an hour.

The first period allowed to the Russian Cabinet for deliberation on the Austrian proposition, has been extended from January 5th, as first specified, to January 8th. This arises from Count Esterhazy not having reached St. Petersburg so early as was intended. The second period is extended in like manner from the 8th to the 18th of January.

A telegraphic dispatch from Berlin declares that Count Nesselrode has privately declared to Baron Siebach, the Saxon envoy, that in his opinion, Russia had made, in her declaration of December 22d, the furtherest concession she can make. At the same time, it understood that Russia consents to negotiate, and offers in her terms plausible propositions as a basis of negotiations for peace.

The London Morning Chronicle says that the Russian reply will be sent to Vienna direct, and not be handed to Count Eesterhazy. The return reply of Austria will be sent to Count Nesselrode. This mode of transmission will create at least a month's delay in the negotiations.

According to the correspondence of the London Times, the acceptance or rejection by Russia of the Austrian propositions depends a great deal, if not entirely, on Prussia. It is the knowledge of this fact which raises or depresses the expectations of the Austrian public; according to the tenor of the intelligence from Berlin. Meanwhile it is known that the instructions to the Prussian minister at St. Petersburg were to give the most conciliatory counsels to Count Nesselrode, and it is moreover affirmed that the King of Prussia had addressed an autograph letter to the Emperor Alexander to the same effect.

Correspondance says that France and England are taking a very high tone with Prussia, and threaten to extend the blockade to their ports, hence King Frederick recommends to the Czar to come to terms.

Berlin correspondents continue to intimate that there is no doubt Austria has really determined the Germanian Diet to make a manifestation on the Eastern question. Count Odnell, the Emperor's Aid-de-Camp is commissioned to visit several of the German Courts to pave the way for this object.

A Vienna despatch adds very favorable hopes are entertained as regards an understanding between Prussia and Austria respecting the mode of treating the peace question, both at St. Petersburgh and at the Frankfort Diet, but little weight is to be attached to this vague surmise.

The Berlin correspondence of the Independence Belge maintains firmly the Austria ultimatum, and on their rejection Austria will take the field. It is needless to say that this statement must be taken as a mere guess.

Mercantile letters from St. Peterburgh reach to the 1st of January, and do not harmonize with the subsequent reports of the failure of negotiations. The arrival of Baron Seback, had taken place two days previous, and been followed by considerable speculation in the funds, by members of the Court, who might be supposed to have caught a glimpse of peace. Nevertheless the fear of an attack on the capital, restrained the more cautious from investing large sums on it.

The Danish Government has sent a circular to the different States of Europe. In this circular the Danish Government renews the declaration of neutrality.

Denmark insists on maintaining the position of a neutral power, and admits no engagements on its side, in relation to the treaty concluded Nov. 21st, between Sweeden and Western Powers.

A St. Petersburgh dispatch of the 8th says; Omar Pasha has fallen back on Redoubt Diel, His troops suffer much from inclemency of the season.

The Russian detatchments harrass his rear.

Constantinople letters of Dec. 28th say, the Russians have intercepted his communications with Kutals, Suchumkale and with the coast, and that he has applied to the Allies for assistance. The Emperor Napoleon has again taken the idea of assuming actual command of the army, and the reports go that he has stated to Gen. Bosquet, he should accompany him to Finland in spring. Rumor goes further and says the [illegible] ernment will be administered in his (the Emperor's) absence by a commission composed of Marshals Wagran, Waliant, Canrobert, Prince Napoleon and Count Walski. The British Government is much opposed to these intentions.

THE VERY LATEST.

Berlin, Friday eve, Jan. 11.—It seems to be known here that the reply of Russia to Count Esterhazy's proposition is far from a decided negative. In our diplomatic circles a long series of negotiations is looked for.

The Prussian ministry is getting exceedingly nervous about a threatened general blockade of the Baltic by allied powers.

It is one part of Col. Menternifel's mission to Vienna to ascertain whether Austria will give her support to Prussia in case of such a violation of neutrality. Meanwhile Prussia is redoubling efforts to induce Russia to come to terms.

The King of Holland has added his efforts to his relative King of Prussia to urge the Czar to the necessity of peace.

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.

The steamer Northern Light, Capt. Zinklepaugh, for San Juan del Norte left this port at 3 o'clock, P. M. She carried out a large number of California emigrants.

BOSTON, Jan. 24.

In municipal court to-day, Judge Nash presiding, Edward D. Coburn and Benjamin J. Dalton were put on trial for manslaughter, in causing the death of William Sumner. Twenty-two witnesses sworn for the prosecution. Testimony to-day has developed no new facts additional to what was shown at the preliminary examination before the Police Court.

Albert J. Tocill and Benjamin D. Watson were to-day convicted of robbing an individual from the country, of $75, by a game called three card monte.

Samuel C. White, alleged to be implicated in the fifty thousand dollars express robbery, was to-day discharged by the court, and immediately on a requisition from the Governor of New York he will be taken to Buffalo, where it is said all the parties arrested for the robbery are to be tried.

Fire at Utica—Withdrawal of Mr. Fuller—Mr. Buchanan coming home.

UTICA, Jan. 24.

The large storehouses of Wheeling, Hawley & Co., also occupied by J. Pollards shoe store, Northrup & Eldridge, G. W. Taft, J. J. Miller, grocers, situated on Erie canal, were entirely destroyed by fire at 2 o'clock this A. M. Northrup & Eldridge, loss $17,000, Taft insured $12,000, Pollard $10,000. Total loss over $50,000. John Millar, grocer, was burned to death in one of his buildings.

ALBANY, Jan. 19.

In the case of Davies vs Cowles, the disputed Judgeship of the New York Supreme Court, the Court of Appeals has reversed the judgement of the Supreme Court, and overruling the demurrer has given judgement for plaintiff. Davies is therefore declared Judge.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.

Mr. Fuller withdrew his name as a candidate for Speaker, and expected that the House would now adopt some plan by which the present difficulties might be settled. House proceeded to vote; Banks 96; Orr 68; Fuller 12; Richards, of Maryland, K. N 18; scattering 9; necessary to a choice 102.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.

The Tribune's correspondent telegraphs Mr. Buchanan wrote that he will relinquish his mission on the 12th of February. Whether a successor be nominated or not, he will appoint Mr. Campbell, Consul at London, to the post of Charge d'Affaires.

No official answer has been received from Denmark on Mr. Marcy's position of the 23d of Nov., to pay the cost of light house and buoys, instead of the capitation suggested from the other side, and now soon expected. The European Congress on this subject was abandoned, owing to political complications.

DETAILS BY THE BALTIC.

The Peace Rumors—Preparations for War.

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.

Breadstuffs are firm. Flour has advanced 6d; Wheat has advanced 1d. The corn market is unchanged. Business is moderate.

The war news is unimportant. Reported advices are received from Berlin and Vienna. The Czar will not accept peace propositions. Denmark will remain neutral. Louis Napoleon will take command of the French army in the Spring. Nothing new in the Crimea.

Consols 86⅛a86½.

Expectation is on tip toe to learn the issue of the peace proposition made to Russia. Rumors of all sorts flying but truth, and nothing can be known for some time to come, for Russia's decision has been extended to January 18th. Nevertheless Berlin and Vienna reports advices already in those capitols, intimating that the Czar will make no further concessions; on the other hand it is certain formal conferences are in session at St. Petersburg, discussing the proposals, and are attended by Nesselrode, Esterhazy, Seebach and Sommer. The Independence Belge published the text of the allied proposals. The general supposition is that Russia will neither accept or reject, but will send Count Stakelbout to Vienna, with counter proposals.

Later rumors speak more favorably of prospects. Denmark announces her continued neutrality, and has no connection with the Swedish alliance.

Nothing from the Crimea. Omar Pacha remains at Redoubt Kalie shut up by winter and Russians. Napoleon threatens to go personally to the war. Richard Gordon has published new peace pamphlets.

LONDON, Jan. 11.

BARING'S CIRCULAR.—Money in less demand, consols declined to 86 1-8a86½. East India Co. have reduced their rates of exchange. Coffee quiet; Lard quiet, scarce; Linseed oil declined; Sugar unchanged. Demand for American stocks limited at unchanged prices.

LIVERPOOL, Jan. 12.

Cotton has been extremely dull and depressed during the week, with a decline of ⅛ on middling and better qualities, and ⅛ on lower descriptions. Market closing same. Orleans, fair, six; uplands, do. five; sales speculators 30,000, export 50,000.

Breadstuffs active: a slight advance on Tuesday's prices. Western Canal flour 41a42s 2d; Ohio 43a44s; Southern 42a43s, white wheat 11s 6d; red Tennessee 10a11s 3d.

Corn—White corn 48s; Yellow, 42s6d; mixed 49s6d.

Beef firm.

Pork and Bacon unchanged.

Lard wanted, market cleaned at 68a68s6d.

Overland Indian Mail arrived at Marseilles on Friday.

LATER.—St. Petersburgh, Jan. 3.—Great Council of War concluded, transpired that Russian tactics for the approaching campaign has undergone important modifications.

Orders sent from head quarters seem to indicate intention to abandon the Crimea. A part of the troops having been ordered to re-inforce Mouravief, and others to join the grand army of the centre.

Keil, 8th.—Our waters are still open and trade between the lower Baltic ports and those of Russia is carried on with great activity.

—An American ship had arrived at Wernelt, and was loading with heamp and yarn.

London, Saturday.—The Post has direct advices from Persia which do not confirm the statement of the capture of Herat by the Persians.

LATEST—FRIDAY EVENING.—The English funds to-day closed at a decline of five-eighths per cent. below the prices of yesterday. Market still prejudiced by recent supplies of stock, and the discouraging prospects of peace. The anticipation that the bank returns would exhibit unsatisfactory returns increased the tendency toward depressing. The monthly returns of the Bank of France is also unfavorable, and has exercised adverse influence upon both London and Paris markets.

It is believed, in well informed quarters, that some definite intelligence from Vienna would probably reach the Government on Monday.

The decrease in Bank of England bullion is upwards of £28,300. The decrease of bullion in Bank of France for the month is £77,200.

LARIGO'S ENGLISH AND MERCANTILE ACADEMY,

No. 40 Wisconsin Street, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

THE PRINCIPAL RESPECTFULLY informs the Public that the next Term of his School commences, Monday, Jan. 21, 1856.

SPRING TERM commences Monday, May 11th, 1856.

This Institution, having been five years in active operation, is permanently established and its prospects still encouraging. It is pleasantly situated in the centre of the City, the building having been enlarged and much improved, has ample accommodation for students of both sexes who wish to acquire a complete ENGLISH and COMMERCIAL EDUCATION.

N. B. Book Keeping, Writing and Arithmetic, are thoroughly and efficiently taught by Prof. Larigo. Gentlemen conversant with business may obtain a masterly knowledge of DOUBLE ENTRY in two or three weeks. He has opened his EVENING SCHOOL for students in Reading, Writing, English Grammar, Book Keeping &c. For further information see Circulars.

Milwaukee Daily Wisconsin, News and Free Democrat, please copy one month.

Helmbold's Genuine Preparations.

HELMBOLD'S HIGHLY CONCENTRATED

COMPOUND FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,

FOR DISEASES OF THE BLADDER and Kidneys, Secret Diseases, Strictures, Weakness, and all diseases of the sexual organs, whether in male or female, from whatever cause they may have originated, and no matter of how long standing.

If you have contracted the terrible disease which, when once seated in the system, will surely go down from one generation to another, undermining the constitution and sapping the very vital fluids of life, do not trust yourself in the hands of quacks, who start up every day in a city like this, and fill the papers with their glaring falsehoods, too well calculated to deceive the young, and those not acquainted with their tricks. You cannot be too careful in the selection of a remedy in these cases.

The Fluid Extract Buchu has been pronounced by eminent physicians the greatest remedy ever known. It is a medicine perfectly pleasant in its taste, and very innocent in its action, and yet so thorough that it annihilates every particle of the rank and poisonous virus of this dreadful disease; and unlike other remedies, does not dry up the disease in the blood.

Constitutional debility brought on by self abuse, a most terrible disease, which has brought thousands of the human race to untimely graves, thus blasting the brilliant hopes of parents, and blighting in the bud the glorious ambition of many a noble youth, can be cured by this infallible remedy. And as a medicine which must benefit everybody, from the simply delicate to the confined and despairing invalid, no equal is to be found acting both as a cure and preventative.

HELMBOLD'S HIGHLY CONCENTRATED

Compound Fluid Extr. Sarsaparilla

For purifying the blood, removing all diseases arising from excess of Mercury, exposure and imprudence in life, chronic constitutional disease, arising from an impure state of the blood, and the only reliable and effectual known remedy for the cure of scrofula, salt rheum, scald head, ulcerations of the throat and legs, pains and swellings of the bones, tetter, pimples on the face, and all scaly eruptions of the skin.

This article is now prescribed by some of the most distinguished physicians in the country, and has proved more efficient in practice than any preparation of Sarsaparilla yet offered to the public. Several cases of secondary syphilis, mercurial and scrofulous diseases, have entirely recovered in the incurable wards of our public institutions, which had for many years resisted every mode of treatment that could be devised. The cases furnish striking examples of the salutary effects of this medicine in arresting some of the most inveterate diseases after the glands were destroyed and the bones already affected.

NOTICE.—Letters from responsible physicians and professors of several medical colleges, and certificates of cures by patients, will be found accompanying both preparations.

PRICES.—Fluid Extract of Buchu, $1 per bottle, or six bottles for $5. Fluid extract of Sarsaparilla, $1 per bottle, or six bottles for $5—equal in strength to one gallon of syrup of sarsaparilla.

Prepared and sold by H. T. HELMBOLD, Chemist, 263 Chesnut-st., near the Girard House, Philadelphia.

To be had of.............................

And of druggists and dealers everywhere.

All letters directed to Proprietor or Agent receives immediate attention. je29-1yd&w

MISCELLANEOUS.

THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE, 1855-6

THE TRIBUNE is now in the middle of its fifteenth year; Vol. XV. of its weekly issue commenced on the 1st of September last. The American public need not now be made acquainted with its character or claims to consideration. With but a subordinate regard for prudence, policy or popularity, it has aimed to stand for Righteousness, for Truth, for Humanity, against fortified Iniquity, Fraud and Oppression. There is not a slave-trader on this Continent, though he may never read anything but his bills of sale and notes-payable, who does not know and hate THE TRIBUNE; there is not an extensive fabricator of drugged and poisonous Liquors who does not consider it a very dangerous and immoral paper, and wonder why its publication is tolerated in a commercial, cotton-buying City like New York. THE NEWARK MERCURY once forcibly remarked that it had never known a hard, griping, screwing, avaricious employer who was not hostile to THE TRIBUNE, nor one eminently generous and kindly who did not like it. Prompt and plain-spoken in its denunciations of iniquity and abuses of power, while claiming no exemption from human fallibility, it may have done temporary injustice to individuals, but it has never been unfaithful to Principle, nor deaf to the cries of the wronged and suffering. In its columns the advocates of novel and unpopular theories contemplating the melioration of human woes, especially those of the voiceless and down-trodden, have ever found audience and hospitality; while it has ardently resisted, and will persistingly combat, every attempt to proscribe and degrade any class because of diversities of Nativity, Creed, or Color.

In defiance of calumnies the most atrocious, and of hostilities the most deadly and untiring, THE TRIBUNE has grown steadily in public appreciation from the day of its origin. Its means of serving the public have been augmented in proportion. Instead of a single editor with one or two assistants, its organization now comprises a numerous body of writers, each fitted by special accomplishment and experience for the particular line of discussion to which his pen is devoted; the daily amount of reading matter given more than quadruples that of its earliest issues; a staff of valued correspondents encircles the globe, transmitting early and intelligent narrations of whatever is most worthy of attention; while Politics, Legislation, Literature, Art, History—in short whatever affects the social well-being of mankind, Polemic Theology alone excepted—finds here the freest and most searching discussion.

Attached by profound conviction to the beneficent policy of Industrial development and Internal Intercommunication whose most conspicuous champion through the last Half-Century was HENRY CLAY—imbued, moreover, with that spirit of forbearance toward our weaker neighbors and toward the much wronged Aborigines of this Continent and of peace with All which will hallow the name of Whig, THE TRIBUNE, while surrendering no jot of its proper independence cooperated earnestly and ardently with the Whig party, so long as its vitality was preserved. When in 1850—2 an attempt was made to interpolate slave-hunting into its creed, we sternly resisted that imposition; when, at the close of the last Presidential canvass, it was seen that a large portion of the Whigs preferred to defeat their own party rather than allow its Anti-Slavery wing to share its triumph, even under a conservative Chief on a Pro-Slavery platform, we knew and proclaimed that the Whig party was no more. Subsequent events, including the rise and culmination of the Know-Nothing conspiracy, and the speedy absorption therein of the whole force of Pro-Slavery Whigism, only confirmed our undoubting anticipations. With no sickly lamentations, therefore, for the inevitably bygone, but with hope, and joy, and sympathy, and words of cheer, have we hailed the beginning and watched the progress of that mighty REPUBLICAN movement which, impelled by the perfidious violation of the Missouri Compact, and stimulated by the astounding outrages whereof the rights of the Free Settlers of Kansas have been the victims—by the repeated and utter vitiation of their elections by an armed mob collected by conspiracy and hurried suddenly upon them from the border counties of the neighboring Slave State, is destined to sweep away the land-marks of old party feuds, and unite the true hearts and strong arms of the free-souled in one mighty effort to confine the scourge and scandal of our country within the limits of the States which unwisely uphold it. To the success of this effort, the energies of THE TRIBUNE will be sternly devoted; while the TEMPERANCE REFORM, including the entire suppression of the Traffic in Intoxicating Beverages, will find in it, as hitherto, an earnest and unflinching champion.

Commencing as a daily folio sheet of moderate size, and with scarcely a shadow of patronage, THE TRIBUNE is now issued in quarto form DAILY (three distinct editions), SEMI-WEEKLY and WEEKLY, on a sheet 44 by 84 inches, eight ample pages of six columns each. Its circulation has steadily grown from nothing to the following aggregates:

Daily issues (evening and morning)	28,500	copies.
Semi-Weekly	14,175	"
Weekly	137,750	"
California edition	6,000	"
Total	187,425	copies.

We believe no other newspaper in the world has a subscription list over half so large as this; and no periodical of any sort can rival it. And while its extreme cheapness rendering an increase of paying readers only an indirect pecuniary advantage to us, has doubtless largely swelled its subscription list, it would be absurdity not to perceive in this unprecedented patronage some evidence of public approval and esteem.

TERMS.

THE TRIBUNE employs no traveling agents and sends out no papers on trust. If it is not stopped when the term paid for expires, and the subscriber does not choose further to pay for it, we resort to no legal process to compel him. On the weekly, we mean to stop every paper on the expiration of the advance payment, awaiting a fresh remittance from the subscriber. If none comes, the account is closed. We pay no local agents; wish no money paid to any when the payer cannot trust him to mail or otherwise send it to us; once mailed, its safety is at our risk, and a serious risk it often proves;) but are grateful to every one who deems it a good work to obtain and forward the names and money of his friends and neighbors. Our terms invariably are—for the DAILY TRIBUNE, $6 per annum.

SEMI-WEEKLY, $3; two copies for $5; five for $11,25

WEEKLY, $2; three copies for $5; five copies for $8; ten copies for $12; twenty copies, or over, TO ONE ADDRESS for $1 each; twenty copies, or over, to address of each subscriber, $1,20 each.

Additions may at all times be made to made to a club at the price paid by those already in it.

ANOTHER TRIUMPH OF HERRING'S SAFES.

MR. SILAS C. HERRING—

Dear Sir:—The safe I bought of you, nearly two years since, has "turned up" all right. We dug it from the ruins in the cellar yesterday. The safe was in the back part of the fourth story of "Fetteral's Building," corner of Fifth and Chestnut streets, in the height of the fire of the 15th inst., and fell with the burning timbers a distance of 40 feet. It contained all my books and papers. Not a thing was saved on my premises except the contents of your safe, which effectually resisted all the "the fury of the flames." I am now using the same books and papers.

Yours, truly,

the Proprietors refer to that in successful operation through the country as their best recommendation, as it can speak for itself. All they can say is, that they are both PRACTICAL MECHANICS, and know how work should be done as well as the next man.

They continue to manufacture FLOUR and SAW MILL GEARING, and STEAM ENGINES, on the most approved principle.

They have always on hand a large stock of BRASS WORKS, such as GUAGE AND CYLINDER COCKS, OIL CUPS AND COCKS, and STEAM WHISTLES. Also TURTON'S FILES, which they will sell at the lowest cash price.

☞They are also Agents for EASTMAN'S PATENT STEAM GUAGES, which are well worth the attention of all, those who use Steam Engines.

In conclusion, they invite a continued share of the patronage of their old friends, and solicit a call from all those in want of Saw or Flouring Mill Work, assuring them that no exertions will be spared to render the Old Eagle worthy of the reputation it has already gained.

Their motto is, "Excelsior."

TO THE MILLION!

READ AND JUDGE FOR YOURSELVES

PROFESSOR WOOD'S Hair Restorative is no doubt the most wonderful discovery of this age of progress, for it will restore, permanently, grey hair to its original color, cover the head of the bald with a most luxuriant growth, remove at once all dandruff and itching, cure all Scrofula and other cutaneous eruptions, such as scald head, &c. It will cure as if by magic, nervous or periodical headache, make the hair soft, glossy, and wavy, and preserve the color perfectly, and the hair from falling to extreme old age. We could give the testimony of more than one hundred thousand to the truth of every word we have written. See circular and the following:

CARLYLE, Ill., June 29, 1855.

I have used Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, and have admitted its wonderful effect. My hair was becoming, as I thought prematurely grey; but by the use of his Restorative it has resumed its original color, and I have no doubt permanently so.

SIDNEY BREESE,

Ex-Senator United States.

VINCENNES, Ind., June 10, 1853.

Prof. O. J. Wood: Dear Sir—As you are about to manufacture extensively and vend your recently discovered Hair Restorative, I will state for whomsoever it may concern, that I have used it and known others to use it; that I have for several years been in the habit of using other hair restoratives, and that I find yours vastly superior to any other I know. It entirely cleanses the head from dandruff, and with one month's proper use will restore any person's hair to the original youthful color and texture, giving it a healthy, soft and glossy appearance, and all this without discoloring the hands that apply it, or the dress on which it drops. I would therefore recommend its use to every one desirous of having a fine color and texture of hair.

Respectfully yours,

WILSON KING

A gentleman of Boston writes to his friends in New Bedford, thus:

To your inquiries I would reply that when I first commenced using Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, my hair was almost white, and had been so for the last ten years and it was very thin on the top of my head, and very loose and pulled out freely; but I found that before I had used the second bottle up (which was eight weeks) my hair was entirely changed to its original color (light brown) and is now free from dandruff and quite moist. I have had my hair out five or six times since the change, and have never seen anything like white hair starting from the roots, and it is now as thick as it ever was, and does not come out at all. It has proved in my case all that I could wish or ask.

Yours, &c., ———.

July 1, 1854.

GARDNER, Me., June 22, 1855.

Mr. Dyer: Dear Sir—I have used two bottles of Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, and can truly say it is the greatest discovery of the age for restoring and changing the hair. Before using it, I was as grey as a man of seventy. My hair has now attained its original color. You can recommend it to the world without the least fear, as my case was one of the worst kind.

Yours, &c.,

DANIEL N. MURPHY.

ST. LOUIS, March 7, 1854.

Prof. Wood:—My hair commenced falling off some three or four years since, and continued to do so until I became quite bald. I tried all the popular medicines of the day, but to no effect. At last I was induced to try your celebrated Hair Restorative, and am happy to say it is doing wonders. I have now a fine growth of young hair, and cheerfully recommend its use to all similarly afflicted.

A. C. WILLMANSON,

183 Second Street.

ST. LOUIS, June 23, 1853.

Prof. Wood:—As you are about to prepare and vend your recently discovered Hair Restorative, and as you request my opinion of it, I will state that my hair was, a few months ago, very grey; and after using two bottles of your Hair Restorative, it assumed its original color, and since its application all dandruff has disappeared from my head, and I have been troubled with no disagreeable itching of the scalp. I am satisfied those who use it will not regret it, as it gives the appearance of having been recently oiled. I am prepared, therefore, to recommend its use to all who are desirous of having a beautiful head of hair.

I am, sir, yours, &c.,

H. L. STEWART.

LIFE AND DEATH.

THE

Mysteries of Disease Laid Open to the People.

Health is the Principle of Life—Disease is the Principle of Death.

The R. R. R. Remedies possess the great power to secure to the human system health and long life, and free the human family from pains, aches, and all bodily infirmities.

THE ART OF PRESERVING HEALTH AND THE METHOD OF CURING DISEASE BY THE R. R. R.'S.

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF

IS TO BE USED in all cases where there is pain. The moment it is applied externally, or taken internally, it will allay the most torturing aches, pains, cramps, spasms, burns, scalds, &c., quicker than Morphine, Chloroform, Veratrine, or any other anodyne or remedy that has ever been used by medical men.

It is safer than these dangerous remedies. The public will bear in mind that Chloroform, Morphine, Opium, &c., only stifle the pain by stupifying the senses, so that the perceptive faculties lose the power of feeling, and that after the influence of these narcotics have passed from the system—the pain again breaks forth with its terrible pangs, with renewed violence.

Radway's Ready Relief stops the pain and removes the cause of the disease that occasions it; it infuses new life into the weak and diseased parts. It braces the nerves, and establishes in the system a reaction of health and strength, in the place of pain, weakness and disease.

As a counter irritant, Radway's Ready Relief applied to the surface of the body, where there is any inflammation or congestion, it will instantly scatter the congested blood, equalizes the circulation, and in a few minutes the most exoruciating pains are removed. This may be seen in cases of Lumbago, Gout, and Rheumatism in their most terrible forms, where an application of Radway's Ready Relief will restore the patient ease and comfort.

Crippled with Rheumatism, Arm and Leg perished—No hopes of his recovery—Timely use of R. R. R.—A wonderful cure.

LETTER FROM ISAAC HUDDLESTONE.

Rapids Parish, La., June 10th, 1855.

Messrs. Radway & Co.,—Radway's Ready Relief has cured Peter May of Rheumatism, when there was no hope of his ever recovering. I heard of his situation and I sent for him. His right arm and leg was all perished. He had no use of them at all; but by the use of your medicine, in two months he was carrying the mail from Cherryville to Burr's Ferry. I objected. He said he must do something for a living. It has been fourteen months since he was cured. He is now well and working on his farm, and the whole cost of your medicine was five dollars.

CARTER'S SPANISH MIXTURE

THE GREAT PURIFIER OF THE BLOOD!

THE BEST ALTERATIVE KNOWN!!

NOT A PARTICLE OF MERCURY IN IT!

An infallible remedy for Scrofula, King's Evil, Rheumatism, Obstinate Cutaneous Eruptions, Pimples or Pustules on the Face, Blotches, Boils, Ague and Fever, Chronic Sore Eyes, Ringworm or Tetter, Scald Head, Enlargement and pain of the Bones and Joints, Salt Rheum, Stubborn Ulcers, Syphilitic Disorders, and all diseases arising from an injudicious use of Mercury, Imprudence in Life, or Impurity of the Blood.

This great alterative Medicine and Purifier of the Blood is now used by thousands of grateful patients from all parts of the United States, who testify daily to the remarkable cures performed by the greatest of all medicines, "CARTER'S SPANISH MIXTURE." Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Scrofula, Eruptions on the Skin, Liver Disease, Fevers, Ulcers, Old Sores, Affection of the Kidneys, Diseases of the Throat, Female Complaints, Pains and Aching of the Bones and joints, are speedily put to flight by using this inestimable remedy.

For all diseases of the Blood, nothing has yet been found to compare with it. It cleanses the system of all impurities, acts gently and efficiently on the Liver and Kidneys, strengthens the Digestion, gives tone to the stomach, makes the Skin clear and healthy, and restores the Constitution, enfeebled by disease or broken down by the excesses of youth, to its pristine vigor and strength.

For the DISEASES OF FEMALES it is peculiarly applicable, and wherever it has become known is regularly prescribed with the happiest effects. It invigorates the weak and debilitated, and imparts elasticity to the worn-out frame, clears the skin, and leaves the patient fresh and healthy; a single bottle of this inestimable remedy is worth all the so-called Sarsaparillas in existence.

The large number of certificates which we have received from persons from all parts of the United States, is the best evidence that there is no humbug about it. The Press, hotel keepers, magistrates, physicians, and public men, well known to the community, all add their testimony to the wonderful effects of this GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER.

Call on the Agent and get an Almanac, and read the details of astonishing cures performed by CARTER'S SPANISH MIXTURE, (in most cases where every thing else had signally failed.) The limits of an advertisement will not admit their full insertion.

MEDICAL.

AYER'S PILLS.

"Wisdom shall bow down to it, and the great of the earth shall kneel before it."

Never could this be said with more truth, than it now applies to this remedy for affections of the Throat and Lungs. The exalted in learning and power acknowledge its supremacy, while both the little and the great can feel its benefits. The liberal-minded among those skilled to cure are free to own its mastery over distempers which have baffled their art. Those of exalted stations are not ashamed to testify to its virtues, but deem it a duty and a pleasure to thus hold out the lamp of their experience to their suffering fellow men.

Witness the following:

(Translation.)

Vermillionville, La., April 1853.

Mons. le DR. J. C. AYER:—I have of late made frequent use of your CHERRY PECTORAL in my practice, and am happy to inform you that in no case yet has it failed me. I have made some signal cures of Laryngitis and Bronchitis with it, and have completely cured one case of Asthma, which has withstood every other medicine I could employ. Accept, sir, the assurances of my distinguished consideration, JULES CLAUD GOUGUET, M. D.,

Late Surgeon of the Royal Marine, France.

Extract from a letter of our Minister at the Court of the Sublime Porte.

Legation of the U. S. A., Constantinople, Turkey.

DR. J. C. AYER, DEAR SIR:—The CHERRY PECTORAL received from you for the Sultan has been delivered to his private Secretary at the palace, and you will, doubtless, hear from it in due season. That that you were so kind as to send me has been given to friends, who have in many cases, found it exceedingly useful.

Yours Respectfully, GEO. P. MARSH,

Minister Plenipotentiary of the U. S. A. to Turkey.

DR. WEAVER'S CANKER & SALT RHEUM SYRUP & CERATE.

IT IS AN UNDISPUTABLE FACT THAT the above medicines are the only infallible remedies now before the public for cutaneous Eruptions, Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Sore Legs, Ulcers, Old Fever Sores, Scald Head, Scorbutic Eruptions, &c., &c.

Cases that the most eminent Physicians have despaired of relieving, immediately yielded to their curative powers, and when used in accordance with the printed directions, which accompany each bottle, the Syrup and Cerate combined eradicates any of the above named diseases, and leaves the sufferer without a blemish. These medicines are too well known to require anything more than a plain statement of facts. The joyful intelligence is reaching us daily from East, West, North and South, of the wonderful cures they are preforming.

See what is said by those who have used these medicines:

The Rev. Samuel Henry, of Palmer, Mass., says, "they have done me more good than all the other medicines I have used for Erysipelas."

Capt. William Vail, of the steamer Granite State, says: "they have cured my daughter of Salt Rheum and Scald Head of six years' standing. She was literally covered with sores; is now perfectly cured by the use of the Syrup and Cerate."

Dr. A. J. Johnson, of North Wardsboro, Vt., says, "a Scrofulous disease of the hip joint, and Scald Head in the same child, have been cured by the Syrup and Cerate."

Rev. August Bolles says "it has cured the Salt Rheum in my leg."

J. Hatfield Fraser, Esq., editor of the Somerset Whig, Somerville, N. J., says "my mother has been completely cured of a severe case of Tetter of long standing, that had defied the skill of the best Physicians."

Hon. Joel Loomis, of East Lyme, Conn., says, "I was completely cured of Erysipelas in my legs, after a council of the best Physicians in the County had pronounced the disease incurable, (at my age which was seventy-eight years, but Weaver's Syrup and Cerate did the work at once."

Elias Latham, Esq., of Orient, Long Island, N. Y., says, "I hardly know how to express my gratitude to you and your medicines. I have been afflicted for more than thirty years with Salt Rheum in its worst form. I tried several Physicians in New York, Brooklyn and Greenport. I have dieted and taken medicines enough to float a pretty large boat, but they did me no good. I have taken your medicines one year, and am now able to work and sleep without an ache or a pain, and my neighbors say I am the sprightliest man on the Island."

The Rev. J. S. Swan, of New London says, I have used the Syrup and Cerate in my family for morethan a year and I consider it completely adapted to sustain the high reputation that is claimed for it. I have seen it used in a number of cases for Salt Rheum and Erysipelas, with entire success.

Ask Seth Prisbery, of Taunton, Mass., what the medicines will do; ask William Barber, of Three Mile Bay, Jeff Co., N. Y., what the syrup has done for him; ask G. F. & W. H. Boynton, of Perkinsville, Vt.; ask F. L. Kent, of Chicago, Ill; ask Martha Cottle, of Martha's Vineyard, Mass; ask Wm F. Keables, or Wm P. Benjamin, Esqs., of New London; ask Dr. H. M. Murdock, of Pulaski, N. Y; ask J. O Smith, of Brooklyn N. Y., who was cured of Scrofula, after losing his leg by the disease, and suffering for years, has been perfectly cured by the use of the Syrup & Cerate; ask Curtis Burrough, of Shelby, N. Y., who has been cured of a severe case of Salt Rheum; ask Chas. Akin of Hume, N. Y., what the Syrup and Cerate will do for sore legs; ask Winslow and Slater, Merchants, Virgil, N. Y. what it will do for Fever Sores. In a word, ask every body who has ever tried these wonderful medicines, and the answer will be the same—THEY CURE.

COUGHS, COLDS AND CONSUMPTION

THE Proprietors of this PURELY VEGETABLE AND TRULY VALUABLE SYRUP, claim for it no magic powers nor do they offer it to the public as an antidote for all the ills and ailments of life—but solely as a remedy for COUGHS, COLDS, and diseases of the CHEST and LUNGS, in advanced as well as incipient stages. They WARRANT THE SYRUP PURELY VEGETABLE, and free from Opiate or Drug of any kind.

Unlike all other of the many advertised remedies for Colds and Consumption—the action of this Syrup is direct—hand in hand with nature—its benefits are immediate—not leaving the invalid time to regard it as an experiment, requiring slow process, in arresting disease, and restoring health. Ordinary Coughs and Colds generally yield within twenty-four hours; while those of long standing, and which, through negligence or continued imprudence, have assumed more alarming symptoms, usually require the use of the Syrup from ten to twenty days. In cases of hereditary or constitutional character, and which, in many instances, have gained mental as well as physical possession of the invalid, more time is necessarily required, in arresting the disease—in eradicating the taint of blood—in restoring natural sleep and quiet of mind—and securing permanent benefit.

☞ In its highly concentrated form, one bottle of this Syrup is equal to six times the quantity were it prepared in any other manner, and ☞ ONE BOTTLE WILL TEST ITS VIRTUE IN EVERY CASE.

For the purpose of securing ourselves and the public against fraud or imposition, every agent for the sale of this Syrup will be personally selected and appointed by one of our firm, or our general agent, and as a further safeguard, the directions accompanying each bottle will be signed by Mr. Harnden.

ENNO MEYER, No. 366 Third Street, Milwaukee, has been appointed GENERAL AGENT for the State of Wisconsin. For sale also by all the Druggists in Milwaukee.

"EUREKA."

THE CHOLERA SPECIFIC.

THE Proprietor has chosen the above as an appropriate cognomen for his new discovery, and thousands have already added their testimony to the wonderful effects of this great Remedy, certifying it as the greatest and most important achievement of the age. This great desideratum has long been sought by men of science, experience and skill. The indefatigable energies of the proprietor has at last crowned with success, and he fearlessly exclaims to all the world, "EUREKA"—"I HAVE FOUND IT."

He has used it for five years in his private practice in New York, on the Isthmus and in California, and in no case has it failed in Cholera, Cholera Morbus, Cholera Infantum, Diarrhoea and Dysentery.

It is a sovereign Specific—instantly relieving pain in the stomach or bowels, cramps or spasms, curing the worst diarrhoea or dysentery in three hours, and restoring healthy action to the diseased organs, enabling them to perform their natural functions, rendering the patient as healthy as before his attack. No person should be without it either at home or abroad. The medicine is put up in small vials, containing six Pills, each sufficient for any one case. Directions accompany each Bottle, with a fac simile of the proprietor's signature. None genuine without. Price 50 cents per bottle.

General Depot at 159 Lake Street, Chicago.

Orders addressed to H. C. FOSTER, Sole Agent at the Depot as above, will be promptly attended to. Druggists and Sub-Agents supplied on the usual terms.
